

Homologation offices worldwide

Applus IDIADA's homologation services main assets are the following.

- International team of more than 135 homologation experts
- Extensive list of designated as a technical service
- Homologation offices at international level
- Outstanding testing facilities in Spain
- High level co-operation agreements with key homologation stakeholders from many different countries
- Efficient multicultural – multilingual homologation teams working to satisfy global homologation needs of our clients

Applus IDIADA's homologation team is willing to understand the specific needs of each client as a basis to provide tailor-made homologation proposals that fit their needs.