

Interior and exterior trims

DESCRIPTION

Applus IDIADA offers complete engineering and testing services to the global automotive industry for the design and development of body interior and exterior parts: bumpers, door panels, dashboard, pillar trims, etc. We count with first class state-of-the-art engineering tools and testing facilities that fulfil with the most advanced and exigent technical requirements of OEMs and Tier 1 suppliers around the world.

Based on a wide experienced and international engineering and technical team our services cover all the phases of the development project, from target setting to testing and validation.

Service breakdown:

- Benchmarking and target setting
- Styling
- Surfacing
- CAD/CAE
- Testing and validation (For further information, see our pdf 'Testing and validation').